

PRESENTATION SKILLS WORKSHOP

INTRODUCTION: As one might guess, presentations skills can be utilized in many different situations, and are not just confined to formal presentation settings. Leverage skills learned in this program to effectively present ideas, thoughts, vision, and concepts to individuals or groups. Imagine the possibilities!

OBJECTIVE: To develop effective presentation building and delivery skills when addressing audiences large or small

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Anyone seeking to improve their presentation skills

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

- Understanding different communication styles
- Reviewing the DISC instrument and language
- Reviewing personalized DISC communication style report results.
- Overviewing presentation basics
- Outlining presentation goals
- Researching the Audience
- Selecting the right presentation structure
- Exploring different presentation openings
- Writing presentation content
- Structuring one's presentation delivery
- Choosing one's methods of delivery
- Creating a one minute presentation
- Practice through delivery one minute presentation

METHODOLOGY: Interactive group learning, presentation content building and delivery utilizing videotaping and feedback, utilizing the DISC Behavioral "Communicating with Style" Profile Report

PROGRAM LENGTH: 4 hours or 1 day

COURSE SIZE: A minimum class size of 6, to a maximum of 20

PROGRAM LOCATION: Onsite at client location or at an offsite meeting facility.

PROGRAM FEE: Please contact us for group session rates.

WEBSITE INFORMATION: click here.